

Conflict of Interest Disclosure and Confidentiality Statement, 2023

During the time that I serve on the board of directors of The Friends of the Children’s Justice Center (CJC), Summit County, a non-profit serving Summit County Children’s Justice Center, I realize that I will gain access to information that is considered to be confidential and/or proprietary. Such information relates to submitted proposals, criteria or decisions made with regard to the business of CJC.

Since confidential and proprietary information is crucial to the operation of CJC, and because CJC in some instances has the obligation to protect such information, I agree that I will not use, publish or disclose such information during, or subsequent to my participation on the board of directors, and that I will preserve the restricted nature of this information except to the extent that it becomes publicly available, or is otherwise lawfully obtained outside the scope of this agreement from third parties.

Additionally, as a member of the board of directors, I realize that I have an obligation to fully disclose and eliminate (if necessary) any potential or actual duality of interest or conflict of interest.

Below, I have listed all private, public, governmental or community organizations, non-profit corporations, businesses, and/or charitable programs that I, or a member of my immediate family, has a relationship with. The below list of organizations may or may not have sought, or in the future seek, to do business with CJC. The term “relationship” means any relation with a person or organization, whether financial, employment (such as a volunteer assignment, part-time job or as a consultant or independent contractor) or fiduciary (such as a board member or officer). The term “immediate family” means spouse, parent, child or other individual living in the same household.
